

Day of Prayer and Fasting for Peace and Unity to End Racism

On Wednesday, September 9, 2020, the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops has asked that September 9th is a day of fasting for peace and unity to end racism. At Saint Patrick, we will have Adoration and Benediction beginning at 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. with a short reflection and Prayer Service for Racial Healing in Our Land. This is also the Feast Day of St. Peter Claver.

There will be a Prayer Service via livestream with the school students immediately following 9:00 a.m. Mass. This is livestreamed to the classrooms.

Please join us at 6:00 p.m. at Saint Patrick for Prayer for peace and unity to end Racism. This will also be livestreamed too.

Face Masks are required and social distancing is practiced.
